

Meal Charges

It is the responsibility of the student to pay for the meal at the point of service unless the student is approved for free meals. In certain situations a student may need to charge a meal. Elementary, Middle, and High School school students can charge up to $5.00. After the student has reached this amount, the student will be supplied with an alternative meal. Adults are not allowed to charge meals through the school nutrition program.